MINNEAPOLIS—Aug. 14, 2019—IDEaS Revenue Solutions, the world's leading provider of revenue management software and services, has been recognized by WayUp on its Top 100 Internship Programs 2019 list.

Determined by a panel of industry experts who consider everything from thousands of public votes to internship program highlights, the WayUp Top 100 Internship Programs list was especially competitive this year. In total, more than 1,000 employers vied for a top-100 ranking.

The IDEaS U.S. Intern Program was created in 2014 and is continuously growing. The program has opened doors for students from various universities and given them an opportunity to know what it feels like to work in a corporate environment at a thriving technology company. Interns benefit from a chance to learn, network, build professional skills, work alongside top professionals and gain real-world experience.

Dr. Ravi Mehrotra, president, founder and chief scientist, IDEaS, said:

"IDEaS has diligently worked to develop a thoughtful and engaging intern program packed with learning opportunities, mentorship, networking and resources for career development. We don't hire an intern to take care of mundane tasks or fetch coffee. At IDEaS, our interns play an important role and we treat them as regular members of the IDEaS team. They work on real projects and initiatives that will impact our business. In return, we allot the necessary time and resources to invest in them and their learning goals and provide knowledge and skills to help them be successful."
